

1. Which geographic feature lies off the coast of Australia?

- a. The Continental Divide
- b. The Great Barrier Reef
- c. The English Channel
- d. The Iberian Peninsula

2.

Ruth finds a new source of straw baskets in Central America for her business. The new straw baskets can best be described as

- a. exports.
- b. imports.
- c. distributors.
- d. natural resources.

3. What is the one of the main functions of the European Union?

- a. The use of tariffs to increase trade.
- b. Promote trading between member countries and the United States
- c. To promote European culture around the world

- c. To promote European culture around the world
- d. To allow for political and economic integration in member countries

4. Use the maps below to answer number 4.

In which two agricultural regions are most of the cities located?

- a. Crop farming or livestock ranching
- b. Non-agriculture or dairy farming
- c. Plantation or non-agricultural
- d. Dairy or plantation farming

5. About 1,000 years ago, William the Conqueror defeated the English king. Even though William was chosen king by the nobles, he was not going to let them have more power than he had as king. He made all of them take an oath of loyalty to him.

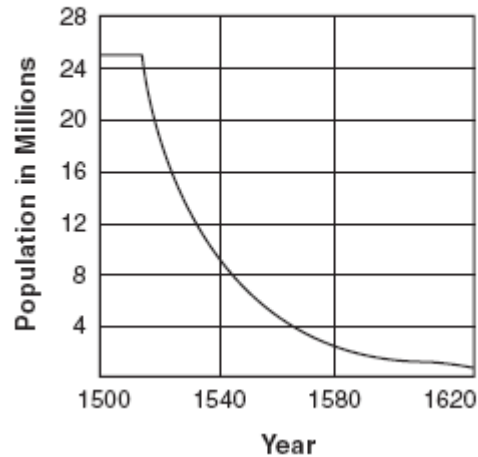

What effect did William the Conqueror have on England?

- a. The monarchy gained power.
- b. The people of England became slaves.
- c. England became the strongest country in Europe.
- d. The English people did not have to obey the nobles.

6. Spanish explorers had the most impact on the language and religion of what region?

- a. Canada
- b. The United States
- c. Latin America
- d. Africa

7. Decline of Estimated Native Population of Central Mexico

What was the main cause of the population change shown on the chart above?

- a. the migration of several culture groups to North America
- b. losses due to Spanish military actions against native peoples
- c. starvation resulting from declining agricultural production
- d. the introduction of disease by contact with Europeans

8. What type of leader ruled many Central and South American countries during the 1800s and 1900s?

- a. Dictator
- b. Czar
- c. Tsar
- d. Monarch